2020 CIF Morocco IPEP

INTERNATIONAL PROFESSIONAL EXCHANGE PROGRAM in Oujda - MARCH 13th to 26th 2020

The goal of the Council of International Fellowship (CIF) is to promote professional, cultural and educational exchange for professionals working in the field of Social Work and Human Services.

The program combines theoretical and practical information about the social and cultural environment of Morocco. Cross-cultural exchange is an important part of the program as participants come from different countries, thus providing opportunities for professional development, sharing and learning as well as broadening professional and personal horizons.

Eligibility for participation:

Candidates should be professionally qualified with a minimum of two years of professional experience and should be able to communicate with both languages: French & English.

PROGRAM STAGES:

Theoretical program (Friday- Sunday) 13-14-15 March

The three days theoretical program takes place in Oujda and it is an orientation and overview about Morocco, its political, educational and social welfare system. Special emphasis is placed upon social work in Oujda and Moroccan way of life. The program is a combination of seminars, and participants are involved in discussions to enhance their understanding of Moroccan culture.

Fieldwork experience & host family living (from Monday to Saturday, 16-21 March): An individual one-week placement based on the participant's field of social work. During this part of the program, the participants will go to the fieldwork agency and live in host family.

Discovering the area / tourist trip: Saturday-Sunday-Monday, 21-23 March

Agencies and institutions visits: Monday-Tuesday, 23-24 March
