

Council of International Fellowship Turkey

International Professional Exchange Program TURKEY April 3-19, 2020 Istanbul, Ankara, Izmir

Council of International Fellowship in Turkey is a voluntary and non-governmental organization that has started to organize international professional exchange programs since 1994. Turkey IPEP focuses on professional exchange between social workers in human services from different origins and also gives importance to cultural part of the program.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The CIF Turkey IPEP 2020 program starts on 3th of April with two days of orientation in Istanbul and all participants are expected to arrive to Istanbul one day before the first meeting. After the orientation, each participant will travel to different city (Izmir, Ankara, and Istanbul) according to their field of interest and work areas. At the end of the program all participants come together in Istanbul for evaluation and farewell party.

2019 CIF Turkey PEP participants from Austria, Spain and Argentina and CIF Turkey board members

The program consists of series of lectures, field visits to governmental and NGO's and cultural events to learn more about Turkish social work, politics and culture.

LIVING AND FINANCES

During the program participants live with host family. Living with host families gives participants a unique chance to have a deep cultural exchange and build up cross-cultural friendships. CIF Turkey covers both inner city transportation and intercity travel expenses. Participants are responsible for their international flight expenses, their full covered health insurances (accidents, hospital services, etc.) and their daily needs like lunch, extra activities, etc.
